CENTRE FOR STUDIES IN LANGUAGES
DIBRUGARH UNIVERSITY*POST GRADUATE CERTIFICATE PROGRAMMES IN BODO,
MISING AND DEORI LANGUAGES*The Bodos, Misings and Deoris Languages

The Bodos, Misings and Deoris are the major plains tribal communities living in the various districts of Assam and other states of North East India. As the distinct ethnic tribal groups, the Bodos, Misings as well as the Deoris have their own mode of livelihood, culture, religion, institutions, festivals, rituals, taboos and language, which portrays the unique features of the Communities as the major tribal population groups of the Country.

The Bodo, Mising and Deori Languages are the sub-branches of the Tibeto-Burman branch of the Tibeto-Chinese Language family. These languages have its own distinctive features with its large number of oral and written literature decorated by a huge granary of yet to be explored vocabularies, phrases and idioms. etc.

Dibrugarh University has decided to introduce the Bodo, Mising and Deori Language as the Post Graduate Certificate Programmes on certain broad perspectives. First, as a language spoken by a large community of Assam, learning the language academically is important to understand their ways of life, to study the various socio-cultural, economic and other dimensions of the community and more importantly to assimilate with them. Secondly, it is observed that in case of bi-lingual speakers, the dominant language plays a hegemonic role and gradually the primary language of the Community losses self-
