DIBRUGARH UNIVERSITY

(Established under the Dibrugarh University Act, 1965)

Dibrugarh University, the easternmost University of India was set up in 1965 under the provisions of the Dibrugarh University Act, 1965 enacted by the Assam Legislative Assembly. It is a teaching-cum-affiliating University with limited residential facilities. The University is situated at Rajabheta at a distance of about five kilometres to the south of the premier town of Dibrugarh in the eastern part of Assam as well as India. Dibrugarh, a commercially and industrially advanced town in the entire north-eastern region also enjoys a unique place in the fields of Art, Literature and Culture. The District of Dibrugarh is well known for its vast treasure of minerals (including oil, natural gas and coal), flora and fauna and largest concentration of tea plantations. The diverse tribes with their distinct dialects, customs, traditions and culture form a polychromatic ethnic mosaic, which becomes a paradise for the study of Anthropology and Sociology, besides art and culture.

The Dibrugarh University Campus is well linked by roads, rails, air and waterways. The National Highway No.37 passes through the University Campus. The territorial jurisdiction of Dibrugarh University covers seven districts of Upper Assam, viz. Dibrugarh, Tinsukia, Sivasagar, Jorhat, Golaghat, Dhemaji, Lakhimpur, Majuli and Charaideo.

The University Campus extends over an area of more than 500 acres of which 60 acres are still covered under tea plantation. The University is re-accredited by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) in 2017 with CGPA of 3.16 on 4 point scale at 'A' Grade. Dibrugarh University is a member of the Association of Indian Universities (AIU) and recognised by all Universities in India and abroad on reciprocal basis.

VISION OF THE UNIVERSITY:

The Dibrugarh University shall motivate and strive for the creation of innovative, competent and compassionate human resources for sustainable and holistic development for achieving social harmony and ensuring quality living so that the University remains as a centre of excellence and continues to generate, disseminate and apply new knowledge and techniques through state of the art education and research in consonance with societal relevance and changing paradigms.
